

WEB(S) OF LIFE

TOMÁS SARACENO
IN COLLABORATION

10 → 11

Note from the Publisher

ELENA OCHOA FOSTER

12 → 15

Serpentine Foreword

HANS-ULRICH OBRIST + BETTINA KOREK

18 → 21

Curators' Introduction

LIZZIE CAREY-THOMAS + CHRIS BAYLEY

NOTE TO THE READER

The artist has intentionally placed reproductions of art pieces, graphics, web pages and newspapers in which content and texts are not readable. To consult this and for further information, please use the links found on the bookmark when you finish reading the book.

22 → 27

Webs of Life:

Tomás Saraceno at the Serpentine
and Beyond

GRACIELA SPERANZA

28 → 33 / 41 → 49 / 57 → 63

PÁCHA

34 → 40

Thinking about Ecosocial Transition:
Lithium and Energy Colonialism

MARISTELLA SVAMPA

50 → 56

Pluriversal Contact Zones:
Storying a World of many Worlds

MARISOL DE LA CADENA

64 → 68

Soul Bag

EDUARDO KOHN

69 → 79

NGAM DÙ

80 → 86

Saraceno Variations

ARTURO ESCOBAR

88 → 91

Technodiversity

YUK HUI

92 → 95

Swimming in the Serpentine

JAMES BRIDLE

97 → 112

WEB(S) IN LIFE:

Woven encounters before, during
and beyond the exhibition

113 → 120

Web(s) of Life

TOMAS SARACENO

121 → 195

WEB(S) OF LIFE
at Serpentine, London

22 → 27

Webs of Life:

Tomás Saraceno at the Serpentine
and Beyond

GRACIELA SPERANZA

28 → 33 / 41 → 49 / 57 → 63

PACHA

34 → 40

Thinking about Ecosocial Transition:
Lithium and Energy Colonialism

MARISTELLA SVAMPA

50 → 56

Pluriversal Contact Zones:
Storying a World of many Worlds

MARISOL DE LA CADENA

64 → 68

Soul Bag

EDUARDO KOHN

69 → 79

NGAM DÙ

80 → 86

Saraceno Variations

ARTURO ESCOBAR

88 → 91

Technodiversity

YUK HUI

92 → 95

Swimming in the Serpentine

JAMES BRIDLE

97 → 112

WEB(S) IN LIFE:

Woven encounters before, during
and beyond the exhibition

113 → 120

Web(s) of Life

TOMAS SARACENO

121 → 195

WEB(S) OF LIFE

at Serpentine, London