

HISTORICAL ATLAS OF AMSTERDAM

A metropolis in maps
1200-2025

JAAP EVERT ABRAHAMSE
REINOUT RUTTE

with contributions by
Marcel IJsselstijn & Yvonne van Mil

THOTH Publishers Bussum

Contents

Preface 5

- 1 Beginnings 6
- 2 A harbour in Holland 8
- 3 A small town in the Low Countries 10
- 4 Rise 12
- 5 From Antwerp to Amsterdam 14
- 6 Reformation, redevelopment and re-use 16
- 7 Canal District 1610-1630 18
- 8 Amsterdam's drained lakes 20
- 9 Public Works 22
- 10 Dam Square 24
- 11 Canal District 1660-1672 26
- 12 Export product Amsterdam 28
- 13 Centre of Holland 30
- 14 Centre of the Dutch Republic 32
- 15 Centre of the world 34
- 16 New towns on foreign shores 36
- 17 Under attack 38
- 18 Canal District 1672-1700 40
- 19 Beyond the ramparts 42
- 20 Amsterdam's industrial backyard 44
- 21 Country delights 46
- 22 Amsterdam, Paris, and London 48
- 23 Canals and railroads 50
- 24 Great aspirations 52
- 25 A shortcut to the North Sea 54
- 26 Second Golden Age 56
- 27 New thoroughfares 58
- 28 The Defence Line of Amsterdam 60
- 29 Expansion 1920-1940 62
- 30 General Extension Plan 64
- 31 City of the future 66
- 32 The city in the region 68
- 33 Urban renewal 70
- 34 Big business – vibrant waterfront 72
- 35 Amsterdam rising high 74

Further reading 78

Image credits 79

Colophon 80