

Politics of Subsidiarity in Refugee Reception

Edited by

Ayhan Kaya and Alexander-Kenneth Nagel

Contents

Citation Information	vi
Notes on Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xi
Preface	xii
Ayhan Kaya and Alexander-Kenneth Nagel
Introduction: Politics of Subsidiarity in Refugee Reception: Comparative Perspectives	1
Ayhan Kaya and Alexander-Kenneth Nagel
1 Stuck in Reception: How Refugees in Austria and Germany Experience Long-Term Reception Constellations	11
Alexander-Kenneth Nagel and Ursula Reeger
2 Toward Street-Level Communities of Practice? The Implications of Actor Diversification in Migration Management in Athens and Berlin	24
Katerina Glyniadaki
3 The Emergence of New Street-Level Bureaucracies in Italy's Asylum Reception System	38
Elena Giacomelli
4 Multi-Level Governance and Sanctuary Cities: The Case of Liège (Belgium) and Undocumented Migrants	53
Elsa Mescoli
5 Politics of Subsidiarity in Refugee Reception: The Case of Civil Society in Turkey	67
Büke Boşnak
6 Governance of Refugee Children Protection in Turkey: Between Vulnerability and Paternalism	82
Zeynep Şahin Mencütek, Dilek Karal and İmran Altıntop
Index	97