

Human Rights and the Environment in Africa

A Research Companion

Edited by Jean-Claude
N. Ashukem and Semie M. Sama

Contents

Foreword	xi
List of contributors	xiii
Acknowledgement	xxiii
1 Introduction: African environmentalism and sustainability – framing the epistemic parameters of human rights and the environment in Africa	1
JEAN-CLAUDE N. ASHUKEM
PART 1
Legal, theoretical, and philosophical issues of human rights and the environment in Africa	17
2 Critical reflections on rights theory and environmental ethics in environmental jurisprudence: an African perspective in pursuit of environmental sustainability	19
SAMUEL BASSEY AND PAUL TERNGU HAAGA
3 The emergence of a human right to a healthy environment and the pursuit of sustainability in Africa	39
EMMANUEL KASIMBAZI, AND JEAN-CLAUDE N. ASHUKEM
4 Human rights and the environment in pursuit of sustainability in Africa: a critical assessment of folkloric, legal, and political economy perspectives	59
OLAWALE AJAI
5 Human rights and the pursuit of environmental sustainability in Africa: issues and problems in African environmental ethics and environmental law	78
SAMUEL BASSEY AND JOHN ELIZABETH OKON

PART 2
Procedural environmental rights in Africa	95
6 International participatory rights and environment protection in Africa – powerful tools or “sleeping rights”?	97
JONAS EBBESSON
7 Procedural rights and trans-regional environmental governance in pursuit of sustainability in Africa: a new African treaty or taking the Aarhus Convention’s route?	116
JEAN-CLAUDE N. ASHUKEM AND TOLULOPE N. OGBORU
8 Pursuing environmental sustainability in Africa: procedural obstacles to environmental litigation based on human rights law	136
DINAH SHELTON
PART 3
Judiciary and the environment in Africa	159
9 Stepping into the future of environmental sustainability in Africa: a case for regional environmental courts	161
CHIDINMA THERESE ODAGHARA
10 International criminal law and the pursuit of environmental sustainability in Africa	179
THOMAS ROSE, LL.M, MSL
11 The judiciary and environmental protection in Africa in pursuit of sustainability: creating an environmental rule of law jurisprudence in response to climate change imperatives	197
FUNMI ABIOYE
12 The justiciability of the right to a healthy environment in the French-speaking states of Africa	214
VINCENT ZAKANÉ

PART 4
Rights to development and natural resources in Africa	237
13 Land grabbing and the right to a healthy environment: the pursuit of sustainability under the African charter on human and peoples' rights	239
SEMIE M. SAMA
14 Contested priority in the pursuit of sustainability in Africa: the right to development and/or the right to a satisfactory environment under the African Charter?	258
JEAN-CLAUDE N. ASHUKEM AND KAREN MORROW
15 Land grabbing in the Anthropocene and the "questionable" pursuit of sustainability in Africa – highlighting ecological disproportionality	276
JEAN-CLAUDE N. ASHUKEM
16 The inefficacy of international law to address biodiversity loss in Africa: a quest for environmental sustainability through an Ecocentric approach	295
CHANÉ CLARECE HENNEY
17 Reflections on the re-orientation of the methods of shared waters governance in African river basin organisations	312
FRANÇOIS BOKONA
PART 5
Rights of vulnerable communities and sustainability in Africa	329
18 The rights of vulnerable communities to development in pursuit of environmental sustainability in Africa: the role of the African Union	331
EBUN ABOLARIN
19 The implication of extractive industries' operation on human and environmental rights of vulnerable groups in pursuit of environmental sustainability in Africa	353
TSEPO CHEDA

PART 6
Climate change and migration in Africa	373
20 Climate action and the pursuit of environmental sustainability in Africa: an analysis of Africa's involvement in COP26 discussions	375
LARISSA-JANE H. HOUSTON
21 Assessing African Union's regime on climate change	396
RICHARD OBENG MENSAH, AND ROSE ASAMOAH
PART 7
Desertification in Africa	413
22 Fostering sustainability through mobility – How opening Africa's borders combats desertification	415
MORITZ VON ROCHOW
23 A rights-based approach to desertification control in pursuit of sustainability in Africa	435
CHARLOTTE KABASEKE
24 Conclusion: towards a more resilient and sustainable human environmental rights future for Africa	452
JEAN-CLAUDE N. ASHUKEM
Index	463