

The Predatory Sea

Human Trafficking and Captivity in the Seventeenth-Century Caribbean

Casey Schmitt

PENN

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA PRESS

PHILADELPHIA

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
Chapter 1. “A Sea of Islands”: Cross-Cultural Trade and Captive Slavery	20
Chapter 2. “Betwixt Ye Two Rivers”: Human Trafficking and Colonization	46
Chapter 3. “They Took Him to Sea”: Captivity and Violence Before Mid-Century	77
Chapter 4. “As He Himself Confessed”: Contested Spaces and Serial Displacement	109
Chapter 5. “A Trail Would Be Blazed”: Reform, Commercial Competition, and War	137
Chapter 6. “Free as Any Children of Adam”: Warfare, Racialized Vulnerability, and the English Invasion of Jamaica	172
Conclusion	204
Notes	213
Index	259
Acknowledgments	271