

Handbook of Human Mobility and Migration

Edited by

Ettore Recchi

*Professor of Sociology, CRIS, Sciences Po, Paris, France and Part-time
Professor, MPC, European University Institute (EUI), Fiesole, Italy*

Mirna Safi

Professor of Sociology, CRIS, Sciences Po, Paris, France

ELGAR HANDBOOKS IN MIGRATION

Edward Elgar
PUBLISHING

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Introduction: human mobility as hallmark of our age Ettore Recchi and Mirna Safi	xii
PART I RETHINKING
1 Is Homo sapiens a growingly mobile species (in the very long run)? Massimo Livi Bacci	2
2 Have migrants become a distinct category in social stratification research? Mirna Safi	12
3 Are migrants a select population? Mathieu Ichou	34
4 Is there an end to mobility? Circular and onward migrants Louise Caron	53
5 Are international and internal migration distinct phenomena? Marine Haddad and Haley McAvay	70
PART II MAPPING
6 How global is international mobility? Emanuel Deutschmann and Ettore Recchi	94
7 Are high-speed rail and airplane mobilities socially stratified? Yoann Demoli and Frédéric Dobruszkes	113
8 Where, when and why are students internationally mobile? Christof Van Mol, Joep Cleven and Benjamin Mulvey	128
9 Child migration: who, where, when and why? Chiara Galli	148
10 International retirement migration: who, where, when and why? Russell King	163
11 Public opinion on immigration: is it converging globally or regionally? James Dennison and Alina Vrânceanu	182

PART III GOVERNING

12	Visas and border infrastructures: what makes them tighter or looser? Fabian Gülzau and Steffen Mau	203
13	Does the forced/voluntary dichotomy really influence migration governance? Hélène Thiollet, Ferruccio Pastore and Camille Schmoll	221
14	Free movement regimes: is the EU experience exportable? Rainer Bauböck	242
15	Transnational mobility and welfare rights: are they compatible? Maurizio Ferrera and Anna Kyriazi	257
16	Who governs migration and mobilities globally? Andrew Geddes	270
	Index	284