

Selected
Works of Korean
Buddhism

Buddhist Apologetics in Early Modern Korea

Treaties and Memorials
by Joseon Period
Monks

Works by
Hamheo Gihwa
Baekgok Cheoneung
Yeondam Yuil

Annotated Translation and Introduction by
Sung-Eun Thomas Kim

Series Editor

Kim Jong-Wook, Dongguk University

Jogye Order of Korean Buddhism

Contents

Foreword	v
Editor's Preface	viii
Acknowledgments	xvii
Conventions	xviii

Translator's Introduction	3
Notes	32

Exposition of the Orthodox by Hamheo Gihwa

Introduction	43
Edifying the People, with Cause and Effect	46
In Defence of Joining the Monastics and the Filiality of Monks	48
Arguing the Loyalty of Monks to the King	51
In Defence of not Killing Life	52
On the Critique of not Drinking Wine	58
Reply to the Criticism of Alms-Giving	60
Teachings about Transmigration and Retribution	62
Response to the Criticism of the Buddhist Custom of Cremation	67

Defending the Discourse on the Cause and Effect of the Three Worlds	71
Countering the Critique against Buddhism as a Barbarian Tradition	72
Countering the Critique That Monks Do not Work and Live off the People ..	76
Defending the Usefulness of Buddhism	78
Daoism, Confucianism, and Buddhism	81
Notes	82

Memorial Remonstrating Against the Suppression of Buddhism by Baekgok Cheoneung

Introduction	93
Discussion on the Monastics	96
The History of Buddhism in China	98
First Reason Buddhism Should not Be Suppressed	100
Second Reason Buddhism Should not Be Suppressed	102
Third Reason Buddhism Should not Be Suppressed	104
Fourth Reason Buddhism Should not Be Suppressed	105
Fifth Reason Buddhism Should not Be Suppressed	107
Sixth Reason Buddhism Should not Be Suppressed	109
Critiquing the Argument That Buddhism Has No Societal Benefits	111
In Defence against the Argument That Buddhism Brought Misfortune	120
Support of Buddhism in the History of the Eastern Kingdom	123
Notes	136

A Long Letter Addressed to Han Pilsu of Neungju District by Yeondam Yuil

The Usefulness of Buddhism	154
The Doctrine of Cause and Effect	158
How Cause and Effect Works: Permeation	160
Problems with the Mandate of Heaven	163
Argument for the Existence of Sukhāvati	165
The Effectiveness of Reciting the Name of Amitābha Buddha	168
Notes	172
Appendix I: Original Texts	177
Appendix II: Photographic Reproduction of the Manuscripts	209
Bibliography	318
Index	327
Contributors	332
The Committee Organization of the Publication Project of the Selected Works of Korean Buddhism	334
Selected Works of Korean Buddhism	338