

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction: Faith and History	1
1. The Social Context of Black Theology	7
Black Theology and Race	11
Marcus Garvey and Black Theology	16
Colonial Perspectives	19
God and the Black Experience	21
Voices from the Caribbean	23
King and Garvey	28
Garvey and Rastafarianism	34
2. Sin and Reconciliation	41
Stating the Problem	43
Loss of Self and Redemption Songs	47
Creation Story	51
Love's Call Is Identical with Reconciliation	52
Conversation with Dorothee Sölle	53
Grace Is Never Cheap	56
Liberation and Reconciliation	58
3. Baptism and the Mystery of Faith	65
Baptism as Witness to New Life	75
Toward Paul's Theology of the Cross	82
Baptism as Interpretive Key	92
Baptism and Spirit	96

4. Salvation and Liberation	101
Salvation without Liberation	104
Becoming Black with Christ	111
Toward a New Exodus	116
5. Christology and Grace in Womanist Thinking	129
Kelly Brown Douglas	134
Jacquelyn Grant	141
Katie Cannon	146
6. Black Theology after James Cone	151
Black Theology and the Third World	154
Black Theology and the Black Church	163
The Mission of the Church	165
Church as Agent of Social Transformation	167
Is Black Faith Adequate as a Tool of Analysis?	169
7. Black Lives Matter	173
Black Resistance	179
Original Sin	182
The Way Forward	183
Conclusion: Linking Faith and Salvation	187
Selected Bibliography	195
Index of Authors	201
Index of Subjects	203
Index of Scripture	208