

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	v
CONTENTS	vii
0. INTRODUCTION.....	1
0.1 Unfinished Business in the Epistemology of Religious Experience	1
0.2 The Chapters.....	2
0.3 Some Assumptions Concerning Beliefs and Experiences..	5
0.3.1 Doxastic and Nondoxastic Grounds.....	5
0.3.2 Perceptual and Other Kinds of Experiences	6
0.3.3 Basic and Nonbasic beliefs	7
0.3.4 Theological Beliefs simpliciter	8
0.3.5 Non-theological beliefs (and N-beliefs).....	9
0.3.6 Basic Theological Beliefs (and D-beliefs).....	9
0.3.7 Natural Theological Beliefs (A-beliefs).....	10
0.3.8 Derived Theological Beliefs	11
0.3.9 The Above Division is Exhaustive of All Beliefs..	12
0.3.10 A Note on Degrees of Belief and Support, and Structures of Support	13
0.4 Assumptions Concerning “Religious Experiences”	14
0.4.1 Narrowing the Interests of Analyses of Religious Experience	15
0.4.2 Broadening the Extension of the term “Religious Experience”	16
1. THE LIMITATIONS OF MYSTICAL PRACTICES	19
1.1 Chapter 1 Introduction	19
1.2 The “Perception Analogy”	21
1.2.1 The Doxastic Practice Approach	22
1.2.2 Describing and Defending the “Christian Mystical Practice”.....	25
1.3 Objections to the Alstonian Approach.....	27
1.3.1 The Interpretation Objection, Sidestepped.....	28
1.3.2 The Bad Tests Objection, Transformed.....	36
1.3.2.1 Extant Override Systems are Too Coarse-Grained.....	38

1.3.2.2	Extant Override Systems don't Check for Truth-Apt Causal Chains.....	40
1.3.2.3	Extant Override Systems are Circular.....	42
1.3.3	The Circularity Objection, Unmasked.....	44
1.4	Chapter 1 Conclusion: Circularity, Granularity, and Veridicality.....	47
2.	IDEAS FROM EVIDENTIALISM.....	49
2.1	Chapter 2 Introduction.....	49
2.2	Evidentialism.....	50
2.2.1	Unpacking Evidentialism.....	52
2.2.2	Total v Relevant Evidence.....	55
2.2.3	Representing Experiences as Propositional Evidence.....	57
2.2.3.1	Strengths of Experience and Quantities of Evidence.....	58
2.2.3.2	Two Propositional Accounts of Experiential Evidence.....	61
2.2.3.3	Religious Experiences as Evidence.....	63
2.3	The Propositional Content of Religious Experiences as an Event.....	67
3.	DEEPER RESOLUTIONS TO RELIGIOUS DISAGREEMENTS.....	73
3.1	Chapter 3 Introduction.....	73
3.2	The Peer Disagreement Analogy.....	76
3.3	Rational Responses to Peer Disagreement.....	83
3.3.1	Conciliate.....	84
3.3.2	Reflect.....	90
3.3.3	Stand Fast.....	93
3.4	Looking Forward.....	95
4.	PREDICTING DIVINE ACTION.....	97
4.1	Chapter 4 Introduction.....	97
4.2	The Outsider Outlook.....	99
4.2.1	The Outsider Outlook as a Simplified Ideal.....	99
4.2.2	Outsiders Should Seek Truth by Believing in Proportion to the Evidence.....	100
4.2.3	Relevant Evidence from the Outsider Outlook.....	101
4.2.3.1	Irrelevant Evidence in the Outsider Outlook.....	102
4.2.3.2	A Heuristic for Excluding Evidence.....	104
4.2.3.3	A Heuristic for Finding Remaining Relevant Evidence.....	106

4.3	The “Anselmian Augury”	106
4.3.1	Motivating the Augury	107
4.3.2	The Deontic Discourse	09
4.3.3	Two Kinds of Beliefs Bearing on Moral Decisions..	112
4.3.4	Balancing One’s Pro Tanto Obligations	113
4.3.4.1	Determining an Action’s Expected Rightness	115
4.3.4.2	Representing Hard Cases.....	117
4.3.4.3	Assigning Obligation Strengths.....	119
4.3.5	From Moral Decisions to Anselmian Auguries	120
4.3.5.1	Steps One and Two: Framing the Creaturely Context as a Set of Divine Actions.....	121
4.3.5.2	Steps Three to Six: Feeding in Moral Priors	124
4.3.5.3	Step Seven: Each Action as a Fraction of the Total Space.....	125
4.3.5.4	Step Eight: Special Divine Actions as Frac- tions of the Historically Possible Space	126
4.4	Divine Disclosures	127
4.4.1	Defining Divine Disclosures.....	128
4.4.2	Applying the Augury from the Outsider Outlook ...	131
4.4.2.1	Alternative Theological Interpretations of the Religious Experience.....	132
4.4.3	Comparative Evaluations of Competing Religious Experiences and D-Beliefs	132
4.5	A Look Backward and a Look Forward	133
5.	REFLECTING ON GOD’S HONESTY	137
5.1	Chapter 5 Introduction	137
5.2	Reflecting on Divine Hiddenness.....	139
5.2.1	Schellenberg’s Divine Hiddenness Argument, For- malized	140
5.2.2	Rules for Responding to Divine Hiddenness.....	144
5.2.3	Generalizing Divine Hiddenness into Divine Discre- tion	146
5.3	Non-Veridical Religious Experiences	147
5.3.1	The Presumption of a Disclosure over its Deception and Communication	151
5.3.2	Accounting for the Rightness of Honesty and Report- age.....	152
5.3.3	Collapsing Variable	154
5.4	How to Respond to Religious Diversity	159

6. PERFECT BEING THEISM FOR ALL	163
6.1 Chapter 6 Introduction	163
6.2 God is Whoever is Worthy of our Worship	164
6.2.1 Accessibility	166
6.2.2 Scope.	168
6.2.3 The Causal Reference View.	171
6.2.4 The Descriptive Denotation View	176
6.2.5 The Worship-Worthiness View	180
6.2.6 Defending the Uniqueness Thesis about Worship.	185
6.2.7 Two Kinds of Counter-Example to Worship-Worthi- ness	191
6.3 From the Worship-Worthiness View to Perfect Being Descriptivism	193
6.3.1 Objective and Subjective Desert	193
6.3.2 What or Who is Objectively Worthy of our Worship?.	195
6.3.2.1 Gwiazda's Account: "Maximal Excellence" entails Unique Perfection.	196
6.3.2.2 The Leaner Account: "Maximal Excellence" entails being the best actual person.	197
6.3.3 Who is Subjectively Worthy of Worship?	198
6.4 Chapter 6 Conclusion.	200
7. CONCLUSION	201
8. BIBLIOGRAPHY.	205