

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction. Critical Approaches to Disaster Documentation and Damage Cartography, 19 th -21 st Century Carmen M. Enss, Piotr Kisiel, Laura Demeter	9
Part I. Maps as Data Sources: Surveys, Strategies and Models	27
Chapter 1. Ruins after the Greek War of Independence: The Work of the French Scientific Mission of Moreas, 1828 Eleni Gkadolou	29
Chapter 2. Standardization of City Damage Maps in Nazi Germany, 1944: Konstanty Gutschow's National Mapping Guidelines and the Map Collection of the 'Working Group for the Reconstruction of War-Damaged Cities' Carmen M. Enss and Georg-Felix Sedlmeyer	45
Chapter 3. Panciu (1940-1945): A Model for the Planned Reconstruction of the Earthquake Damaged Romanian Small Towns Laura Demeter	77
Chapter 4. Emotionalization Through Maps and Texts: Semantic Strategies for Post-Catastrophic Territories in Central Europe Elisa-Maria Hiemer	99
PART II. Disaster Mapping and Post-War Reconstruction Planning	119
Chapter 5. Bomb Damage, Opportunity and Rebuilding in Post-War Britain Peter J. Larkham	121

Chapter 6. Mapping the Destruction and Reconstruction of Italian Cities in World War II: The Case of Brescia Carlotta Coccoli	143
Chapter 7. From War Damage Mapping to Urban Design: Heritage Conservation in the Context of Reconstruction Planning in Austria during and after World War II Birgit Knauer	161
Chapter 8. Mapping Terra Incognita: Planning Post-War Szczecin Piotr Kisiel	181
PART III. Digital Technologies and Media: Challenges to Visualizing Catastrophes	201
Chapter 9. The Frontline Around Madrid: Comparison Between Battle Maps and War Remnants Density Maps of the Spanish Civil War in Madrid Nicolas Marine	203
Chapter 10. War Never Changes, But War Maps Do? Critical Examination of How Digital Cartography Represented Russia's War in Ukraine in 2014 and 2022 Mykola Makhortykh	221
Chapter 11. Catastrophe: What Comes After the End? Mapping in the Exhibition Space: A Cartographic Investigation Stefanie Plappert	239
Concluding Remarks Carmen M. Enss, Laura Demeter, Piotr Kisiel	251
Contributors	263
Index	267